BREAD WEIGHT QUESTION NOT TO BE AGITATED

Chamber of Commerce Head Sees No
Need of Action.

That no radical action will be taken by the Chamber of Commerce regarding the standardization of bread weight, is the opinion of P. T. Moran, president of the organization.

President Moran said last night: "If the wheat crop were being kept in this country, there is no doubt the present agitation would not have been raised, but with a large percentage of its being sent to belligerent countries, it necessarily follows that prices here should rise. Naturally the bakers, to meet this rise, must have some outlet for their increased expense, and the people seem to object to paying more than 5 cents per loaf, the remaining solution is to cut the size of the loaves. Although this is probably a distinction without a difference, it is peculiarly more acceptable to the people."

"While the chamber will no doubt discuss the matter at its next meeting it will be with the idea of fairness to the baker as well as to the consumer."

CHILDREN EXHIBIT SUMMER HANDIWORK

Fancy baskets, hammocks, crocheting, handkerchiefs, embroidery that took months to produce, sewing of every description, the result of the work of the small children of Georgetown during the summer, were on exhibition at the Georgetown playground, Volta place, just west of Thirty-third street, yesterday.

The articles were made under the supervision of Miss Etha Whitcomb and Miss Ethel Walther.

The prize winners and prizes in the various lines are as follows:

Kindergarten work—Girls' work, Miss McFadden, fancy beads; boys, John Neeb, baseball.

Basketry—Thelma Chamberlain, fancy collar.

Crocheting—Estelle Herbert, gold pin.

Sewing—Marie Neeb, hand-embroidered pin cushion.

Miscellaneous class—Pauline Roffitt, fancy pin holder.

Towels—Katherine Zeamer, silver picture frame.

Handkerchiefs—Frances Elliott, material for making a half dozen handkerchiefs.

The judges are Miss Katherine G. Whitcomb, of the Gallinger Playgrounds, and Miss Pearl Robinson, of the Rosedale Playgrounds.

The climax of the convention will be the service in Christ Church Cathedral on October 12 for the presentation of the women's united offering. The total at the 1913 convention was $30,000, and it is expected that amount will be exceeded this year.

CHURCHWOMEN PLAN CONVENTION IN ST. LOUIS

Women from all over the United States and Europe will be present at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church at St. Louis in October. Each of the sixty-eight diocesan branches of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions is entitled to send five delegates to the missionary conferences and meetings connected with the convention, and delegates also will be present from China, Japan, Africa, Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippines, and Honolulu.

The climax of the convention will be the service in Christ Church Cathedral on October 12 for the presentation of the women's united offering. The total at the 1913 convention was $30,000, and it is expected that amount will be exceeded this year.

GUARDSMEN'S FAMILIES SUFFER BY DELAY

Delay in payment of money to dependent relatives of National Guardsmen is declared to be the cause of privation among some of the families entitled to this relief. The bill creating the fund was passed by Congress some time before adjournment, but it probably will be a week or more before any payments are made.

The Citizens' Welfare Association, Munsey Building, is in need of $800 to apply to the relief of the most urgent cases. One case is mentioned as being especially worthy; four members of this family are in need of shoes to wear to school. Money for this and other cases should be sent to the association.

FALSE ADVERTISING CASE TRIAL DATE FIXED

The first case to be tried under the new false-advertising law is in the District of Columbia, which was secured by the Retail Merchants' Association, the Southwick Shops, defendant, will come to trial next Wednesday, according to advices received by Secretary Charles J. Columbus from T. Hardy Todd, assistant district attorney at the Police Court, who is in charge of the Southwick prosecution. C. E. Lavigne, field manager of the American Fair Trade League, who is the complainant in the Southwick case, will return home tomorrow.
